

HOP KILN WINERY

2006 ZINFANDEL SONOMA COUNTY

100% Zinfandel

Vineyard sources Limerick Lane, Russian River Valley
AJ Vineyards (benchland), Dry Creek Valley
Stanley Vineyard (hillside), Dry Creek Valley

Fermentation 100% malolactic fermentation

Barrel aging Russian River Valley –
6 months in 3 to 5-year-old barrels,
70% French, 30% Hungarian
Dry Creek Valley – 10 months in 3 to 5-year-old French oak barrels,
with a few new American oak barrels

Non-filtered

Total production 630 cases

Date bottled November 20, 2007

Release November 23, 2007

pH 3.71

TA 0.67

Alcohol 15.2%

Another classic from Hop Kiln, this wine has all the characteristics of a Sonoma County Zinfandel: raspberry, blackberry and spice flavors plus lush texture. Balanced, medium bodied and complex, this Zin is a food wine. Enjoy it with zesty, robust foods such as roasted, grilled or stewed meats.

